Dear CtK Faith Family;

Are you ready to akaloo? You may have noticed this question in the CtK News throughout the summer. Akaloo is the new Faith Exploration Ministry curriculum for everyone on Sunday mornings, and throughout the week. This program helps all of us continue on our faith journey.

Akaloo is intentional discipleship that 's open to God' s surprises.

On Sunday September 20th we will kick off our Faith Exploration Ministry with " Walking for Peace with Justice " (Anne-Marie House Walk/Run and the Annual CROP Walk for Hunger) we will be collecting akaloo registration forms and answering any questions you might have. Then on Sunday September 27th we will all begin by gathering in the sanctuary at 9:15pm for an introduction to " Discovering the Bible " the first unit for akaloo.

There are many unique features to this program:

- Everyone is studying the same topic at an age appropriate level, thus encouraging family conversation.
- The focus of this program is on helping each one of us follow Jesus better, i.e. become a better disciple.
- Relationship building, questioning and conversation are key components.
- You can take this curriculum home by using the online component and if you happen to miss a week you can easily catch up.

These are just a few of the wonderful reasons I and the Faith Exploration Ministry team hope you will akaloo this year and follow Jesus. Please fill out a registration form for each member of your family who will be participating in the program so we can ensure enough materials for everyone. We are still looking for leaders and the registration forms will be available on the Ctk website.

If you have any questions or would like your login to

May your faith journey be one filled with insight and inspiration!

Peace,
